PETITIONER'S STATUS REPORT

Petitioner M-J-M-A- was released from the DHS's Tacoma detention facility at approximately 2:03 PM yesterday, November 1, 2025. Earlier yesterday, Petitioner had filed, pursuant to this Court's scheduling order, a motion for temporary restraining order at 11:08 AM, ECF 14, and served a request for production on Respondents at 11:30 AM. Petitioner also filed a motion seeking an order to have Respondents transport her to the hearing and for the Court to provide Spanish interpretation, ECF 17.

Given Petitioner's release, the relief requested in the TRO is now only needed in part. Petitioner understands that the entirety of the October 30, 2025 order, ECF 2, as clarified by the October 31, 2025 order, ECF 13, remains in effect. Petitioner makes particular reference to paragraph 5 of the October 30, 2025 order, ECF 2. If this understanding is correct, then Petitioner has received the emergency relief she sought in the TRO. If this understanding is incorrect, at the November 4, 2025 hearing, Petitioner will ask the Court to enter an order including restrictions on transfer outside of the District consistent with paragraph 5 of this Court's October 30 order.

Petitioner further withdraws the relief requested in her motion to transport and provide interpretation, ECF 17, as no longer necessary. Petitioner returned to the District of Oregon through a volunteer who gave her ride from Tacoma to Woodburn the day she was released. At this time, counsel for Petitioner does not intend to call her as a witness at the November 4 hearing. For purposes of the November 4 hearing, Petitioner's counsel will make private arrangements for interpretation.

Dated: November 2, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Stephen W Manning
